THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

1. The Flamura Rosie Cooperative, which was a workshop owned by approximately 250 tailors, was located at No. 2 Strada Locotenent Ganovici in the Tudor Vladimirescu Raion in Bucharest. The Cooperative, under the control of the Union of the Cooperatives for Textiles (Uniunea Cooperativelor de Textile) had offices on Strada Italiana in Bucharest and produced various garments for the state-operated shops or for the free market.
2. With the raw materials it received from the Union of the Cooperatives for Textiles, the Flamura Rosie Cooperative produced shirts which were sold to the state-operated shops for 24 to 28 lei, underwear was sold for 6.50 lei (for one of two pieces) and pyjamas which sold for 40 to 50 lei each.
3. During the period 1951 to 1952, the Flamura Rosie Cooperative made a profit of 18,000,000 old lei. Two million lei were distributed to the members of the cooperative whereas the balance went to the State in the form of taxes, contributions to various funds, et cetera.
